APAFF 5 has the joint themes of Venice and Light. The Light dimension of Venice is seen in reflections, enhanced by water flowing through the city. APAFF 5 is delighted to have found Limbic Cinema, a very talented group of artists who work with technology, art and design to project images on to buildings bringing them and the surrounding environment to life. In Alderney they will link our main events as they illuminate Chateau L'Etoc, the Island Hall and St Anne's Church. The Jerwood Charitable Foundation are sponsoring the McGuire's Jam Jar Fairies, Nigel Foster has drawn together an exceptionally talented group of Opera Singers who will take their audience on a whirlwind tour of composers influenced by Venice. Summer Madness with Kathryn Hepburn reveals Venice in all its 1950's splendour. In the Fringe events the folk musicians will entertain on the unique Alderney Train & then 5 bands will bring the Hog roast to life at the Island Hall.

8.30 pm — Kevin Pallot & Naomi West
9.30 pm — Hot Plastic
10.30 pm — Gabby Young
11.30 pm — RJ Hunter

Boondoggle first came to Alderney for Apaff 4 since when their schedule is becoming busier and their music more individual.

Kevin Pallot came for Apaff 4 and his return with

Naomi West is much waited for. This singer songwriter's original material has seen recognition in the wider folk scene where his song The Soldier reached no 1 in UK Folk Charts.

Hot Plastic is a rock band with electro shards and soulful strands. J is a bass-playing Jersey girl with a Slash fanaticism and Nic sings and plays the guitar. Their sound is tree top dance, suburban indie beach rock and their objective is to create moments of bliss.

Gabby Young's music delivers finely crafted, emotionally open songs at the core as she explores new and ever moving musical ways to surprise and delight. This visit to Alderney will see much of this new style of songs from this most original performer with her very own brand of music.

Robert J. Hunter combines his gruff and powerful voice with the wild thud of overdriven blues guitar to create his truly unique original music. Appearances at all the major English Jazz and Soul venues ensure that he is in demand.

* ticket includes hog roast/vegetarian option – cash bar available

Summer Madness

Chateau L'Etoc

3.00 pm £6

1955 Kathryn Hepburn film set in Venice. Middle-aged Ohio secretary Jane Hudson (Katharine Hepburn) has never found love and has nearly resigned herself to spending the rest of her life alone. But before she does, she uses her savings to finance a summer in romantic Venice, where she finally meets the man of her dreams, the elegant Renato Di Rossi (Rossano Brazzi). But when she learns that her new paramour is leading a double life, she must decide whether her happiness can come at the expense of others. The film shows the many beautiful aspects of Venice and the complications of a holiday romance.
